

VATSALYA TRUST, MUMBAI – GUIDELINES FOR DONATIONS

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for your interest in supporting Vatsalya Trust, Mumbai. Your willingness to contribute to our mission of uplifting destitute and deprived individuals is truly appreciated.

To ensure the safety, well-being, and appropriateness of the items donated, we have established the following guidelines for acceptable donation items:

1. Financial support:

Your monetary contribution can offer children access to quality education, essential medical care, nutritious meals, and fulfill their daily needs.

Also, it enables us to maintain the premises for well-being and cover the operational expenses of the Vatsalya.

2. Food and Nutrition:

We accept grocery items like oil, cereals, rice, etc.

Packaged, unopened dry food items and dry fruits are accepted.

Fruits that are easy to handle and consume, such as apples, oranges, bananas, grapes, seasonal fruits, etc.

Fruits that are delicate or highly perishable may not be suitable for donation, as they might not remain fresh for the intended period.

Items should be within their expiration date and in good condition.

Nutritious snacks like Rajgira chikki, Makhana, etc.

Regrettably, we cannot accept cooked food items due to safety and health considerations.
