Success Story – Impacting Lives Of Aspirant.

Ashok Subhas Jadhav lives at a village in Beed district with his family. The main occupation of his father is that he uses to work as a labor on daily wages basis. The income through his father's work was not enough to carry out the daily house hold expanses because his father did not get work regularly as they lives in a rural area where the daily wages basis work is not regularly available.

Ashok is older than his other brothers, he completed his studies up to 12th standard and decided to work somewhere to help family financially and also decided to complete the further studies by doing work. He started searching job in beed district but due to low employment opportunities he did not get any job and then he became very sad and depressed. He wants the job through which he can get handful amount of money and also can get time for his studies due to these requirements he was not getting suitable job as per his desire.

One day, while all was going on, he received word from a member of his family about the Vatsalya Trust's Drive with Pride project. He then visited the office of Vatsalya Trust's local NGO partner Shramik Manch Gramin Vikas Kendra and got detailed information. After receiving the information, a ray of hope dawned on him, he saw an opportunity to learn driving and work as a driver in the future and he took admission for a driving course under Vatsalya Trust's Drive with Pride project. He completed his driving training became a perfect driver and also later on he got job as a driver on a private vehicle and now he is earning 10,000 per month.

Drive With Pride is a program run by Vatsalys Trust that supports vulnerable youths, from disadvantaged families/communities to realize their dreams by equipping and acquiring employability skills with life skills, which helps them to access decent employment

When Ashok was asked, he said, "Driving training provided by Vatsalya Trust enabled me to stand on my own feet. Thanks to this training that I have been able to support my family financially by sharing my livelihood, I am very thankful to Vatsalya Trust, thank you! "
