MR. GAJANAN ANANT DAMLE

We regret to inform you that the founder member and the Secretary of Vatsalya Trust, Mumbai Mr. Gajanan Anant Damle, lovingly known to all as 'Damle kaka' left us for heavenly abode on 15th November 2019. He was 93 years old. At the age of 55 years, when usually people start planning for peaceful post retirement life, Damle kaka founded Vatsalya in 1983 with the help of his likeminded and dedicated associates like Dr. Shivram D. Athavale, Smt. Sanjeevani Raykar and Mr. Anantrao Kulkarni. His dedication towards the cause and perseverance was astonishing. At the time of founding the Trust, even he would not have imagined that the work started by him by bringing two infants in a small premise would grow to such a reputed institution in 35 years. However due to stupendous efforts by Damle kaka along with Smt. Upadhye Tai, Shri. Nana Bhagwat and other dedicated volunteers he was blessed to see Vatsalya becoming a premier NGO catering to destitute of the society. Today Vatsalya takes care of one day old child in Orphanage and ninety-one years old grandmother in Old-age Home with equal ease and dedication, along with, girls in Balikashram, special children in Rehabilitation Centre, conducts courses for woman empowerment including Patients Assistant Program, Home Care Assistant Program, Drive with Pride, Computer classes to name a few.

Damle kaka received numerous awards for his devoted social service. However, instead of resting on the laurels, he continued his work with enormous energy. Damle kaka was kind hearted hard-core social worker who would win the people by his simplicity, integrity and sincerity.

It is an end of the era for Vatsalya. We all should continue the great work started by Damle kaka and should walk on the path shown by him.
